

beaconsfield100.ca

303, boul. Beaconsfield Blvd., Beaconsfield, QC H9W 4A7

Beaconsfield sizzles with end of summer centennial events!

Beaconsfield, Quebec– August 12, 2010 – Get your summer sizzle on! You're invited to come to the final week of Beaconsfield's 100th Anniversary's hot, hot, hot summer events. We're heating things up one last time before school starts and the cold sets in.

Take this opportunity to have some fun, get in the groove, be in awe and laugh out loud at the following centennial activities taking place at Centennial Park, 288 Beaconsfield Boulevard:

Tuesday Aug. 17 at 7:30 pm

- Dave Gossage and Celtic Mindwarp
- An upbeat mix of reels and jigs, high powered songs and intricate arrangements including jazz, African music, rhythm and blues, drum/bass, Indian music and, of course, Irish and Scottish traditional music
- Featuring brothers Dave, Thom and Bill Gossage who grew up in Beaurepaire Village, the heart of Beaconsfield and its oldest section

Wednesday August 18 at 7:30 pm

- Romeo and Juliet by Repercussion Theatre
- One of Shakespeare's greatest and most popular plays, with all the elements of a blockbuster. Duels. Untimely deaths. Low comedy. High drama. Bumbling nurses. Fumbling priests. Potions that work too well. Poisons that work even better. All fuelled by the mad, intoxicating fury of teenage lovers, whose passion inflamed a city and enthralled audiences for more than 500 years.
- Little known fact: Repercussion's Shakespeare in the Park first started in Beaconsfield.

Friday August 20 from 6:00 to 10:15 pm

- Centennial Sumer Sizzler
- Geared to teens and adults, this sizzling summer finale with a line-up of entertainment and activities features local talent including Bowser & Blue, a fire breathing act, live DJ and fireworks!

Be sure to check our other free centennial events at www.beaconsfield100.ca. We'll keep on celebrating and commemorating our thrilling historic milestone until the end of December at Centennial Park with concerts; art, quilting and rug hooking exhibitions; an Angell Woods picnic; puppet and clown theatres and more! The grand finale on December 11 will be a special Centennial Wrap-up Celebration with an outdoor drum parade, singers and the official sealing of the Beaconsfield 100 Time Capsule.

Centennial activities are organized to encourage people in the community to connect with each other, take a look at the past and get excited about the future. Come join the fun! All are invited to attend.

beaconsfield100.ca

303, boul. Beaconsfield Blvd., Beaconsfield, QC H9W 4A7

Contact: Michèle Janis, Beaconsfield Centennial 2010 Steering Committee

E-mail: beaconsfield100@beaconsfield.ca

Phone: 514 428-4480

About Beaconsfield Centennial 2010 Steering Committee:

The Beaconsfield Centennial 2010 Steering Committee is a non-profit organisation formed to coordinate the Beaconsfield Centennial Celebrations which will be held in 2010 for the general public. Its role is to encourage Beaconsfield residents to celebrate their local heritage and to engage with community organizations and volunteers in planning and staging events. Commemorate and Celebrate! 1910 -2010

Please visit our website at beaconsfield100.ca for more information.